I specialise in corporate, M&A, banking & finance, restructuring and capital markets matters as a primary focus and also on aviation related transactions.

I have extensive experience in advising lenders and sponsors on a wide range of domestic and cross-border banking transactions, including real estate, acquisition, leveraged, structured and syndicated transactions, as well as general lending and restructuring.

I also have extensive experience in debt financings, including debt programs and hybrid capital.

I am a qualified lawyer registered at the Paris Bar since October 2012 as well as a solicitor of England of Wales registered with the SRA since March 2017. I will also be registered as avocat à la Cour with the Luxembourg Bar from September 2019. I also hold a LL.M. obtained at Queen Mary University of London in 2015 in international corporate and finance law.
