I am an expert in private banking and wealth management and have over 36 years' experience in banking and finance. I specialise in all aspects of private banking and wealth management and in particular the financing of corporate jets, yachts, trophy real estate, art work and share portfolios.

The deals I advise on are normally international in nature, often involving up to five different jurisdictions on one transaction.

I also have a particular expertise in funds financing to private equity houses and lending to professional partnerships.

I also counsel clients on litigation finance, M&A and company reorganisations focusing on the financial services sector and banks turn to me for pragmatic solutions to maximise recoveries from delinquent debtors and guarantors.

What others say...

“ Incredibly in-depth knowledge of finance and adds that 'clients value the dedication and responsiveness of approach ’”
