Professional Profile and Bio

Kristiyana advises on a broad range of international trade and regulatory issues under EU and Member State legislation, as well as the application of WTO and other international agreements.

She has a particular focus on EU trade defence instruments, customs and export controls. Her recent assignments include representing the EU producers of electric bicycles, conventional bicycles and glass fibres in EU anti-dumping and anti-subsidy cases.

Prior to qualifying as a lawyer in Bulgaria, Kristiyana completed a traineeship at the European Commission (DG TRADE) where she worked on TDI cases.

She is fluent in English, Spanish and French in addition to her native Bulgarian.
