

ASSOCIATE, PUBLIC AND REGULATORY/PLANNING & ENVIRONMENTAL

Rory Ferguson

I act for a range of public bodies and regulators in all aspects of public and administrative law, with a particular focus on planning and environmental law. Prior to joining Fieldfisher, I spent six years as a legal adviser to a UK regulator.

I have significant experience in public and administrative law including: judicial review, regulatory investigations, inquests, licensing enforcement, planning law, freedom of information law and statutory interpretation.

I also have a detailed understanding of aviation law across a number of areas including airline licensing and runway capacity expansion.

In my spare time I enjoy running, sea swimming, cycling, rugby and cooking.
