I specialise in civil and commercial litigation. I also advise clients on non-contentious matters. I have rich experience on litigation, enforcement of judgments and non-litigation of non-performing assets. I can handle litigation and arbitration of various contractual disputes. I also provide corporate legal advisory services as well. I have been working in the law firm for more than six years.

I obtained my LLB from Guangdong University of Foreign Studies.

My working language is Chinese and English.
