My experience includes also assistance in securitisations and assistance in principal finance transactions of performing and non-performing loans.

In the past I have gained experience also in M&A, corporate finance and commercial contracts.

Before joining Fieldfisher, I was a corporate lawyer at one of the Big Four firms.

I qualified as an Italian lawyer in 2008 and since then I am a member of the Bar of Palermo.

I graduated from the University of Palermo in 2004. I obtained an LL.M. degree in Corporate and Securities Law from Queen Mary University of London in 2006.

I advise clients in Italian and English.
