I represent clients with respect to takeovers, equity and debt capital market transactions, venture capital investments, set-up of fund structures and fundraising as well as general capital market, finance and fund regulation.

A lot of my clients are companies and entrepreneurs in the technology sector. Therefore, I regularly support fintechs and insurtechs and recently also blockchain technology companies with respect to regulatory and liability issues.

As member of Fieldfisher's Nordic Desk I support Swedish and other Scandinavian businesses on their corporate activity and investments in Germany and support German companies doing business and investing in Sweden and wider Scandinavia.

I advise my clients in German, English and Swedish.
