Professional Profile and Bio

Jean-François is recognised as an expert in civil and commercial litigation and arbitration (both domestic and cross-border), representing clients in various jurisdictions, or assisting them in alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes, such as arbitration and mediation.

He has a specific expertise in obligations and contract law, advising clients on a broad range of contracts, both contentious and non-contentious, including transactional advisory work on acquisition matters.

Jean-François also has an extensive experience in helping clients manage and handle crisis situations in complex projects requiring (pre)-litigation strategies.

He teaches obligations and contract law at Saint-Louis University in Brussels and is the author of numerous publications. He speaks regularly at conferences on contract law and dispute resolution topics.

He is a member of the Commission on Arbitration and ADR and of the Commission on Commercial Law and Practice of the International Commercial Court.

Jean-François is recommended by Legal 500 and listed as an expert in his field by Who's Who Legal.

He is fluent in French and English.
