I specialise in corporate finance, particularly flotations, fundraisings and takeovers as well as mergers and acquisitions.

I act for a range of listed companies, investment banks and brokers.

I have particular expertise in the natural resources sector and act for a number of oil and gas and mining clients advising them on their IPOs, fundraisings and corporate or asset acquisitions and disposals.

I also have expertise in the financial institutions, life sciences and technology sectors.

I am ranked as a leading individual (Band 1) in Chambers UK capital markets.

What others say...

“ Very good communicator [...] always remains calm under fire [...] razor sharp with an incisive legal brain. ”
