My practice includes all issues related to intellectual property (trademarks, designs, patents, copyright, unfair and parasitic competition, domain names), in both advisory and litigation matters. I also have experience with advising companies concerning data privacy protection and e-commerce matters.

Admitted to the New York Bar in 2020 and to the Paris Bar in 2021, I hold a Master's degree in Literary, Artistic and Industrial Property from the University of Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas, and an LL.M. degree from the University of California Berkeley.

Before joining Fieldfisher, I worked for several international law firms, a French IP boutique law firm and clerked for the Paris Court.

I speak French and English.
